Update Notification # 60

Update Notification Release Date: 2/14/23

Form/Procedure/Policy: New Accreditation Program Available for FDA LAAF and Supporting Documents

Attention All Applicant and Accredited Organizations:

We are now offering accreditation for FDA LAAF laboratories. This is in accordance with the FDA Accreditation Laboratory Accreditation for Analyses of Food Program (LAAF). Information on this program has now been made available on our website as well as the new assessment working document checklist LF-56-FDA LAAF.

If you are interested in applying for this program, please contact our PJLA staff for more information.

Thank you!
